

Wireless communication system for professionals in the entertainment industry

VOKKERO™, THE BEST OF TECHNOLOGY

- ▶ The Vokkero™ wireless intercom system is now part of the range of equipment used by the BENSON' company's mobile teams.
- ▶ Sound, lighting and video specialist, BENSON' provides services in the context of a great variety of events: fashion shows (L'Oréal, ...), events (European Week, Brive Book Fair, ...), concerts (Murray Head, ...), festivals (Rencontre du Moyen Métrage, Concèze, ...), reporting (Mondial du 2 roues), shows, meetings, etc.
- ▶ In this context, it is responsible for technical control on-site. Using the Vokkero™ wireless intercom system, it coordinates engineers (sound, light, stage, etc.) and their assistants, without any prior training.
- ▶ « Recently, I had to coordinate two lighting engineers for Turenne Chateau. One was in a cradle 30 metres above ground and the other down below. Fortunately we were all equipped with the Vokkero™ system! We were able to communicate without any problems, simultaneously. Without it, it would have taken us twice as long! », acknowledges Benjamin FAURE, BENSONS's manager and accustomed to using Vokkero™ in many and varied contexts.

ADVANTAGES OF THE VOKKERO™ SYSTEM

- ▶ An extremely clear communication thanks to the Vokkero™ noise filter, ensuring optimal sound quality, even in a noisy environment.
- ▶ Simultaneous exchanges that allow greater responsiveness and improve the synchronization of teams.
- ▶ A full-duplex (audio conference) communication solution, set up in a few seconds and requiring no prior installation or base station.
- ▶ A total freedom of movement thanks to a 100% hands-free system requiring no manipulation.
- ▶ A permanent contact generating efficiency and comfort at work.
- ▶ Full compatibility with existing wired intercoms (2 or 4 wires) thanks to a Wireless Interface (WI)
